It has an attractive interface, and it also comes with a wide selection of Bible scenes, cards, and other tools for studying the Bible. Pietro PaccioneThis is one of the interesting things I just tried to do. I selected the SABBAN E SODI ATHENE menu and I chose MY MENU. The next menus are CALENDAR, CONTACT, LIBRARY. I checked the box. I want to say :- When You Create a new card or any new option, This is very simple, I create a new card or option, I choose MY MENU. If I decide that I want to see the related card or the related option, I click on MY MENU and I go to the related menu. So I created a card, I can insert a verse and a link to a card or a Text. Right now is a Text but the Text can be a video, a song, a picture, a document, a link Lamp Unto My Feet Tips, Tricks & More: Please read carefully the instructions before you begin: - Lamp Unto My Feet allows editing, adding, and removing of multiple copies of a card. This means if you move the card to another "page" you will need to remove it from the one you created it on. - You must have a web browser open in order to add cards. - Editing is not available for single cards. - Changing text on cards using right or left arrow keys moves the cursor to the next or previous available space on the card I really like the best of the best Android Bible App I want to share my list of the best Android app Bible.
