There's a big collection of online tools that can help you with everything from high school to post-graduate courses. In particular, we are talking about the type of tools that deal with study materials. To ensure that the following tool will prove beneficial for you, it is important to know what to look for. Let's start with sharing your materials. You have to realize that your students have access to your study materials, as well as devices that allow them to study at their own pace. You need to ensure that this doesn't happen. Highly customisable interface One of the most helpful tools to use with regard to classroom studies is the ability to edit study materials. However, there is no single tool that provides this feature. In other words, you're going to need a series of tools to make this happen. Getting Started: Open the player. From the pop-up menu, choose the type of study material you are looking for, such as textbook, notes or a homework assignment. You are ready to go. More Extra: What features are available? Practice tests in a similar format as the real thing You can use this type of tool to test your knowledge. In fact, this is what the best online flash card application does. It allows you to create a study material, and then offer practice tests, giving you the chance to improve as you go along. Simple enough, but more is possible The process of creating a study material is simple. For instance, you create a set of flash cards, which you fill with text. Moreover, you can design the borders of the cards and choose different styles. You can use the provided field to add text tags, but you can also create a custom form if you prefer that. There's also a "board template", which lets you add pictures to the cards. The set can be a set of homework, a textbook or even a free course. Can you create custom questions? There's a dedicated set of tools you can use to design questions, and they are perfect for creating homework and practice tests. You simply type the answer, and the application will show you the correct solution. It's not perfect, but it does what it needs to. There's also a feature that lets you add a "forgot me" message to the cards. You can also insert links into the text.
