er what? An Architect's Guide to Exploring Questions About Exile, Race and Systems Published in An Architect's Guide to Exile. This is the world's first book that explores different aspects of the question 'under what?' (Woolf, 1984, p. 6) Woolf concluded her residency at the Haus der Kulturen der Welt 2010 (HKW, Berlin) in September 2010. For as long as the private German archive has been accessible to international researchers and exhibited, HKW has hosted a residency for international artists, writers and other artists, focusing on questions of exile, former and current displacement, migration, mobility and the future of culture. Here "pilgrimage" is a walking in remembrance, a renunciation of the past on the road in search of
