Batch DOC to PNG Converter comes packed with the minimum requirements for a Word conversion program but it uses too much CPU. We recommend you look for a more powerful software than this tool. Batch DOC TO PNG Converter Review: Batch DOC TO PNG Converter is a powerful DOC to PNG converter that can help you convert and save documents. It provides a standard set of features to perform this task and it does this job very well. This tool helps you convert and save DOC, RTF, TXT and EML files. It can even convert DOCX files. You can import documents to the software via the file browser, the tree view or by "drag and drop". Moreover, batch conversion is possible. The program has three viewing modes: normal, detailed and basic. The detailed mode provides you with extra information about a document like the page numbers, total word count and the total number of pages. You can also choose the location of the output files. The ability to select a customized subfolder for your documents is a remarkable addition to this software. It allows you to save specific subfolders to a specific folder. The most obvious problem with the software is the 'too much' amount of memory it uses. This problem is caused by the size of the configuration window. It is a minor inconvenience, but
