HKEY_CURRENT_USER\Software\Microsoft\Windows\CurrentVersion\Run "java.exe"="C:\Program Files\Java\jre8\bin\javaw.exe" It's only an undocumented key for regedit unfortunately... You'll need to do the same for any other (native) program that launches Java. Police investigate after nine people were injured in a stabbing at a house party in Falmouth, Australia on September 8, 2019. Nine people have been taken to hospital after an argument at a house party in the Queensland town of Bundaberg started when a woman allegedly stabbed a man with a kitchen knife, police said. Local media said the altercation took place early on Sunday at a party at a home on Wilston Street. The victim was allegedly stabbed in the stomach by the woman, who had been at the party before the incident, Bundaberg Police Inspector Gary Rowles said on Monday. "The fight and stabbing appeared to involve couples. It was reported the female entered a bedroom and was confronted by the male in the room, before the woman allegedly assaulted the male with a kitchen knife," he said. Police said four other people were also injured in the incident. Rowles said three of those taken to hospital were male teenagers, while the others were a female in her early 20s and a man in his 50s. "The male has been discharged from the hospital," he said. Rowles said police had been "contemplating" charges over the incident. Inspector Rowles said the NSW
