We reach the same conclusion for the dismissal of plaintiff's PRA claim. 3 For the same reasons, we conclude that Count III, which alleges that the FDIC improperly and impermissibly disclosed plaintiff's private information to the media, fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. The TAC's only remaining PRA claim is Count IV, which alleges that plaintiff's public information about the Smith Ranch was unlawfully withheld by the Department. Despite the fact that the court dismissed this claim with prejudice, plaintiff argues on appeal that he is entitled to a rehearing on that claim. Plaintiff's theory is that he did not receive notice of the Department's hearing on his claim. But plaintiff did have notice of that hearing. The relevant PRA sections provide that before the Department
