Will you give me this one tiny, selfish request, please? Will you pray for me, dear Lord? Let me know that you're watching over me, So that when I fall, You'll be the first to catch me. - This is a real prayer I recently sent to my God for His guidance as I navigate through this current "Fall." I'm beginning to sense that I'm not alone in my current season. I'm so grateful to have the grace of His steadfast love surrounding me. I love receiving His wisdom and guidance daily through my daily readings from the Bible, prayers from my husband & friends, and the wisdom of my mom & other family members. I firmly believe that God has a purpose for each and every one of us, but so many times we're so busy doing something else when He's nudging us towards that purpose. His grace is so BIG, so BIG that I often find myself overwhelmed with the vastness of it. But because He made it so big, it's also so simple. The love and grace are so vast, so vast, so vast that it encompasses absolutely everything we desire and everything we fear, everything we don't want and everything we do want. Here's the proof: God - The God who loves unconditionally, the God who expects nothing in return for those promises He has made about us - the God who struggles with our disobedience - the God who always acts for our good - is also the God who created all things. He has to be the one who is in control. If

What's new in Maid Of Sker Soundtrack:

Fallen: A2P Protocol is the sixth studio album by Swedish band In Flames, released on 7 August 2008 via Napalm Records. Before recording, the band had planned to record for two years. The recording process was characterised by difficulties and progress, mainly due to numerous one off studio sessions. Throughout the recording process, In Flames utilised several live musicians to cover their absent songs. This effort was met with little recognition by the record buying public. The title Fallen was chosen by the band after Kyle Thomas said in an interview that he liked the line "We're fallen, all of us have been caught", from the song Crash by Irish singer Johnny Logan. Upon its release, Fallen: A2P Protocol received generally positive reviews, with critics considering its style change out of In Flames as well as the overall outcome successful. Of the album's content, lyrics dealing with religion, self-injury, depression and suicide were acknowledged as narratives that openly discussed difficult concepts and helped the audience understand them. Music and lyrics Fallen: A2P Protocol is a concept album based on the human psyche and its many dark sides; in some cases, such an expression is often associated with heavy metal music. The album opens with a spoken piece, with the spoken portions being narrated by "Eric" (a nickname of Sam Boyd, the writer of the French language line of the overall title), who speaks of a mother who once adored her child but "from a distance only". Eric also mentions his alcoholism, which he views as a form of "God's punishment" for his frequent rapes of defenceless women. The spoken portion lasts 15 seconds; the song continues with spoken material from the band. The latter again narrates of a mother who loves her daughter but doesn't know what she has become. The song ends with an explosion of all the darkness within Eric, killing him. The album continues by introducing the concept of "function" where lyrics deal with the subject of sexual imbalance and its presence, explained in the lyrics of the song function. The song is very clear on this subject, with In Flames often employs the use of metal growls during the song. The rest of the album focuses on the concept "Etiology". This concept deals with the fact that everything, even our thoughts and feelings, has a cause and the story of a single cause for something, but it still remains incomplete and disturbing. The lone cause in this case, are "secret agents" which are

Aerial destruction is a helicopter game set during battles between militaries and armed groups of bioengineered mutants. With 7 available missions and 15 achievements to unlock, you can play from the start as a beginner with a limited flying experience to become an ace pilot and a jedi-like commander of your personal armada. The game starts with 3 helicopters to play, the Cobra (easy to fly, medium-powered), the Jager (medium-powered, aerial-control) and the Jaguar (powerful, fast, capable of performing advanced tricks). Enjoy it: Helicopters games with a direct control of the helicopter on the 3D landscape. Most famous, probably, are the "Hanger-throb" (review) or the "Helifighter" (review). They're really great games! This game is not the same. You will be given a limited number of credits in order to pay for fuel in the stage, live or create your own armada. But don't worry because every helicopter can be bought for a limited number of credits and the prices are not too high to achieve the maximum destruction possible. Finally, the complete destruction of your target requires a lot of skill and dedication with the least chances. User Comments: I love this game, it's like my favorite heli sim ever and its free! To save fuel, turn the refuelling animations off. There's no need to save fuel though; you always get 3,000 электрооборотов автомобиля per second with no refueling. The default values are fairly good, and even when you're not using the helicopter, you will get about 10 kilometers per hour, which you can pick up with a small helicopter. If you want to really abuse the engine, tune it using this script. It's not as hard as you'd think. All those difficult sections are a combination of a few simple actions, like zigzagging under the enemy or turning left and right to force it to waste your bullets, and more aggressive turns, like countersteering, and bank angles to cheat the enemy. The default values work pretty good, and you can usually find a good setting to go for most approaches. You shouldn't have any trouble with all but the most advanced settings. That being said, I can
