The Grundy County Sheriff's Office is investigating the discovery of an abandoned baby in a car in the parking lot of a Johnsonville gas station. Just before 11:30 a.m. Friday, the Grundy County Sheriff's Office received a call of an infant left in the back seat of a parked car in the parking lot of the downtown Johnsonville Sears at 921 N. Main St. Inspector Travis Trigg arrived on scene to meet with an employee of Big O Tire & Auto-parts. The employee told Trigg that he had been working on the car in the gas station's garage on Thursday, and on Friday morning he went to get gas at the station. While he was filling up, he noticed the car in the lot, with the child in the back seat. He turned the car around and drove to the Johnsonville Police Department. When the employee got to the police department, he reported what he had seen, and immediately called Grundy County Sheriff's Office. Trigg told the employee to return to the gas station parking lot, close the car's door and wait for an officer to arrive. Witnesses notified the Grundy County Sheriff's Office when they saw an officer arrive. The Grundy County Sheriff's Office is now investigating the report. The Grundy County Sheriff's
