Just use a phone as a remote control or as a screen. Android Screen Remote is a real Android application that lets you take the screen of your Android smartphone (4.0+). With a maximum magnification of 5000%, you will be able to zoom in to the most minute details of your Android smartphone's screen. This feature is only available in horizontal (landscape) mode. The maximum zoom is obtained by double tapping on the screen of your smartphone, when you are in landscape mode. The zoom scales the screen in a perfect circular shape. You can even use an Android smartphone as a mouse by tapping on any part of the screen. In this mode, you can make horizontal (landscape) and vertical (portrait) movements. You can configure custom maximum zooming, mouse, and enlargement. You can also assign a global shortcut for shortcuts. Download the Android Screen Remote App and enjoy this utility on your Android smartphone. Key features: - Maximum zoom of 5000% - Mouse - Enlargement - Mouse wheel - Global shortcuts - Horizontal and vertical movements - Tapping - Dragging - Double tap for zooming - Screen control - Adjustable sizes of the mouse cursor and enlargement - Remembering the last position of the mouse pointer after a pause or reboot - Adjustable color schemes for the transparent background of the application - Support for Android tablets - Password protection - Support for multiple languages - Support for video conferencing (just like Skype) - Support for wifi networks - Built in browser (just like Google Chrome) What's New in Version 1.0.1: - Updated the home screen icon What's New in Version 1.0.0: - App is now stable and free of bugs Screenshots: Set pieces as weapons

In the next game we will introduce new characters with specific skills. Unbeatable The Unbeatable is a dark wizard. He has all the odds, and you need all your skill to defeat him. In the race, he hides inside a blind spot, near his allies. This way, he can't be seen by the opponents. He can also hack the base, locking himself inside and kill you all, the defenders of the base. This is the most dangerous character, as he has 99 defenses, meaning he can prevent you from entering the base. If you manage to get inside the base, however, he will have no way to hurt you. This guy is one of the best defensive characters, who can stop an army in its track with a few maneuvers. Triangle The Triangle is a magician. He uses special skills to knock down and pick up the opponents. The magical dishes that he is carrying around and that keep falling to the ground will help him in his task. He has special skills to teleport around the map. He is also very cunning, and can take down all the defenders. The Triangle is a very weak character, but d41b202975

This is how it works: There are 4 stages with different weathers. During the game, the weather changes from day to night and the sun rises on the players. The best phase for players to take advantage of this and gather candy is in the day. During the night, the rain will start, falling on the pieces of chalk and affecting its capacity to collect candy. Candy sticks on the board, which can be collected only during the day. During the day the competitors can collect a maximum of 9 candy, while during the night only 7. A bonus is that the candy collected during the day can be used to power up the final explosion, making the game more difficult. In the night you have to collect the 7 maximum candy in order to be able to make the next day with more candy, so more points. Only in the final day, the players with the maximum amount of candy will be able to make a powerful explosion that will launch each player outside of the board. Each game of shape arena is 4 minutes long and 4 points are awarded to the player who gets the highest score.Players must use the same playing field throughout the game to earn the most candy and build up a maximum score. Welcome to 2D paintball. Player one and two start in the middle of the map, player three on the left side and player four on the right side. Players must get at least three strikes to eliminate their opponents. In the first round, there are only five players, but in subsequent rounds, you will have to play against increasing numbers of players. This is also referred to as the 'hot' match.The two-player mode consists of two players against each other; the winner is the first to eliminate his or her opponent. The mode called 'Assault' or 'Race' has the same game play as the 'Hot' mode, but it has more players. In the Assault or Race mode, the two players start on opposite sides of the map. Players must get at least three strikes to eliminate their opponents. The mode called 'Hot' or 'All-Out' has the same game play as the 'Assault' or 'Race' mode, but there are more players. The winning player is the first to eliminate his or her opponent. of the Corporeal Beast Lady Lyra's Other Enemies By Stina Leicht Under the pale light of the coldest stars in the west, you are blessed, dear abyssal dwellers. At last, the Goddess is about to claim one of you! How many ages have you waited for it? The first Cardinal has fallen, the second Cardinal has fallen, the third Cardinal has fallen. The perfect plan has begun. The Divine Huntress, Lady Lyra has chosen one of your number to lead you into the realm of death. You were allowed to enter, so long as you were the first among you to die under the moon's pale light. Your numbers have dwindled greatly in these many ages. The greater horde of glory-sworn revelers are unfit to be the first to fade in the Hall of the Bivouac. Your numbers have become a far cry from your original numbers when you first crawled away from the abyssal apocalypse. What of the others? What shall happen to them? Part IV of the Index of the Divine Huntress (By Lady Lyra) The Cardinal of Angels Cardinal Silas, the leader of the Crimson Children finds himself lost in a strange, alien world of chaos where ordinary beings fail to go unnoticed. He now struggles to stay sane in this depressing, perpetual darkness, and with it, an endless cycle of pain, watching as the flesh of his fellow kin is burnt down in the sickly inferno of stars. He dreams of escape, the freedom to wander the world, and be amongst the moonlit company that dances in the garden. The Crimson Children are creatures of evil and sickness, birthed within the mists of the abyssal piles. Their stars no longer shine in their bodies and fight against the will to destroy any sane being who crosses their paths. With the help of brothers and sisters, this beleaguered demigod has assembled various parts of his fallen body, to conjoin with the stars. They belong to him, and as soon as he can he will make his escape to the last place he remembers as bliss, his home in ancient dreamtime. Cards from The Diabolic Sibyl.
