There has been a legend about the existence of a magical gem that has the power to change the world. It was discovered in a distant land, and for the past several hundred years, numerous people have been searching for it. In the ancient times, the palace of the Shining Moon, the royal family of the Shining Moon Kingdom, searched for the magical gem to rule the world. Many courageous knights passed through the palace, and some met their demise at the hands of monsters. Also, some were consumed by the Endless Stream. What the Shining Moon King, who is the great-grandfather of the current king, did not realize was that the house of the Shining Moon, which was transformed to a magical gem, had the power to change the world. Along with the jewel, a powerful Chaos Mage, that "Chaos", also called the cursed one, was in possession of the power to change the world. However, it became the cause of even more troubles in the world. The crown prince of the Shining Moon Kingdom, who was the grandson of the Shining Moon King, was a brave young man. After his uncle, who was the current king, died unexpectedly, the crown prince took control of the kingdom. He was a kind and kind-hearted person. Because of this, people looked up to him as the next king. However, because of his lack of experience, the power of the Chaos mage and the temptation of the Shining Moon changed his heart. The previous king died without his beloved queen, and the crown prince used a Chaos ritual and stole the heart of a corrupted elf. However, after saving the elf, he unfortunately became her master. After the elf, a human girl who had lost her memories because of her curse, was taken into the palace as the wife of the crown prince, he forcibly raped her. After the young lady's condition was recovered and she went into a coma, the crown prince proposed to marry her. The young lady's mother, who had always wished for the power of a Celestial race that would save this world from the desolation of enemies, supported it. After she was forcibly married, the crown prince's love for the married young lady was deeply engraved on her heart. Her righteous desire to punish the crown prince for raping her in the past grew stronger, so she was glad that he was taken care of by a fairy. However, it became clear that a very strong, evil, and
