A: It's an Oracle VM VirtualBox. Welcome to the Oracle VM VirtualBox forums where you can share your experiences and get help from expert members. In many ways it's is very similar to VirtualBox. And you can download VirtualBox and try and it will work in exactly the same way. But it will be slower, not as feature complete and probably have fewer drivers. Share this: Like this: Well, all the colors for this year's theme and design are as bright as they can possibly be. From deep hues like turquoise to bright royal blue, and from pastels like muted teal to a bright neon green, we're sure to have a theme that will keep you coming back to our site year after year. That's it for now, but the fun doesn't stop there. So keep coming back to see what I come up with next. Have a great week! Share this: Like this: I decided that I wanted to do a snowflake theme for this year's design. I knew that the primary color on the paper would be brown. I thought that a yellowy-green might work but I couldn't seem to find a color that works with both the brown and yellow. So I mixed brown with a small amount of yellow and green to create this lovely purple. Share this: Like this: Finally, everything is made. For the past few weeks, I've been busy sewing, crafting, shopping and prepping for this event. Now that everything is done, I thought I'd take some time to show off what I've been working on over the past few weeks. This is not the final look but it is the first mock-up. I'm really proud of all of the work I've done, and I'm sure to get a few comments about how cute the back is, so I figured it'd be better to just show you. Again, this is not the final look but these will be used as canvases for the table runners and background for other projects. Here are a few shots of the finished products: Share this: Like this:
