The Madurai Puranam is the latest book on nalayira divya prabandham written by Nanditha Rani. Divya Prabandham is considered as the spiritual discipline of selfknowledge and the knowledge of one self attained by the self-realization. However, the true meaning of the great Divya Prabandhams which is spread across these 52 divya prabandhams is not fully described in this book. With the precision in the explanations and the reference to the original texts, the Nanditha Rani has put her knowledge and wisdom into this book and translated the divya prabandhams into Tamil without adding any of her own opinion. The Divya prabandhams are available in different languages like Telugu, Malayalam, Tamil, Kannada and Hindi etc. This book is a collection of 12 nalayira divya prabandhams in Telugu, Malayalam, Kannada, Tamil and Hindi languages. The translated versions, which are accompanied by the original hymns, are in clear handwriting showing a rich style of Tamil. The book is arranged alphabetically and divided into six divisions named as "Thololi", "Muthuvaitathu", "Nilambam", "Nalam", "Kummiilastha" and "Chatpattu".
