Seizures are a common reason for visits to the emergency department. To determine if there are predictors for an increased seizure frequency in adults with epilepsy, in a retrospective study we reviewed medical records of 975 inpatients and outpatients with seizures seen at the Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center for the period of January 1, 1985, to December 31, 1992. We compared the clinical characteristics and treatments of patients with less than one seizure per month, to those of patients with one or more seizures per month during the same period. The mean age of patients with seizures was 34.2 years (range, 16 to 78 years), and the male-to-female ratio was 2:1. More women were seizure-free than men and were younger. The use of phenobarbital, valproate, phenytoin, carbamazepine, and phenytoin + carbamazepine was similar for patients with 1 or more seizures per month and patients with less than 1 seizure per month. Female patients with seizures may have an increased frequency of seizures.Flop Love Flop Love is a 2015 comedy-drama written, directed and starring Deana Deckard. Plot Flop Love follows the unlikely love affair between a fey Brooklyn housewife, Carla, and a mentally-challenged guide dog-loving florist, Michael, who suffers from cerebral palsy. The two are neighbors living in a row of houses next to one another on the same block for years. Carla makes Michael soup and muffins, and cooks for him on his special burners and temperature controlled electric carts. They both have health problems, but seem to enjoy each other's company. In a strange turn of events, one day, Michael falls in love with Carla's strapping, 6'5" alcoholic husband, Tim. He proceeds to extort their marriage to get his way with her. Carla is not used to having friends and then loses her marbles when she realizes that even Tim is too good for her husband, and she's been had. She can't take
